

2011 ANNUAL REPORT

Chairman's Report

The usual form for a Chairman's report is to give an outline of the year's highlights, express thanks and congratulations to our wonderful volunteers and clubs, and give a quick examination of the Union's finances. You will excuse me, particularly this year, if I concentrate on the latter:

Our Union has posted a substantial loss this year, amounting to approximately $93,000. This was not entirely unexpected. Just under half that loss can be attributed to the less than stellar performance of the Union's share portfolio. The remainder represents a loss from our operations – our core business, if you like.

I wish to first address the Union's investment in the managed equity fund, Ausbil Dexia. If we look at this year in isolation, it has not performed well – in fact, coming in just below the market average. In any case, it should not be assessed entirely on one year's results. Recent economic volatility has impacted on our share portfolio as it has with everyone, business and individual alike. The Board remains committed to its investment strategy, which has always been long term. We believe it to be a balanced approach with a large amount of cash invested at the bank, both on call and in fixed term deposits, in addition to the share portfolio. The Board is resolute in its expectation that in the long term this strategy will provide a greater return on investment than a simple term deposit.

That is not to say that the Board will not continue to review its investments, and be open to other opportunities. Uppermost in our minds is, of course, that we must always manage any investment risk in a prudent manner:

Our rugby operations ran at a loss for the first time since 2002. This can be mainly attributed to the abolition of our cash grant from NSW Rugby, although it should be said that we have also recorded reductions in income from sponsorships and team registrations. There have been no real significant increases in any of our normal operating expenditures.

It is no secret that NSW Rugby is in some financial distress. What may not be so clear however is the way in which Community Rugby in this state has had to bear the brunt of that. So let's spell it out: NSW Rugby affiliates – Subbies, Country, Juniors and the Premiership Competition – each have had their cash grants massively reduced. In total, nearly one quarter of a million dollars less per year is now flowing into Community Rugby.

In our case, the grant has been extinguished. We still receive fees for the rugby services we provide to NSW Rugby, and we do still get indirect financial support in the form of referee payments and office space, but no longer do we receive a cash grant. I am duty bound to report to you that this is not a situation that is going to improve in the short term. Whilst it was originally believed – and publicised – that the Community Rugby funding cuts would be short lived, I am afraid that has proved to be overly optimistic. We are certainly budgeting for at least another year without a grant from NSW Rugby.

So what does all this mean for Subbies clubs and players? Unfortunately, in short, higher fees. You should expect – and budget for – increases in affiliation fees, team registration fees, and fines. We will also be looking to cut our expenditures where we can do so without affecting services to clubs. The Board is mindful that our financial reserves, so carefully built up over the years, are ultimately there for the benefit of our member clubs. That does not mean that those reserves can completely shelter our clubs from economic reality. They are, however, most definitely cushioning the blow, for without those reserves much more substantial cost increases would have to be inflicted.

My final word on finance is more of a philosophical observation – one that I hope is noted not only by Suburban Member Clubs, but also by administrators and management further up the rugby "food chain". The Waratahs, despite now being a separate corporate entity, do not exist in a vacuum. They do not exist purely for their own sake. They do not exist just to win a Super Rugby title. The Waratahs organisation has a duty to rugby throughout the state: a duty to promote the game, a duty to grow the game and, yes, a duty to finance the game. That has long been true. Let's be careful to make sure that truth is not forgotten as the gap between professional and community rugby threatens to become an abyss.

On a happier note, I warmly congratulate all the winning clubs and teams in 2011. Particular mention needs to be made of Woollahra Colleagues for their unprecedented haul of five premierships. The club has a celebrated history, with many triumphs and successful seasons, but surely none so glorious as 2011. Well done to the "Blue Giants".

I thank very much our volunteer Judiciary and Appeals Tribunal members and my fellow Board members; the Union's committed staff of Mark Green, Tim Richards and Lisa Kinny; and the hundreds of club volunteers who continue to show their passion for the game itself.

Executive Director's Report

In my previous two annual reports I noted the retirement of long serving Board members, Ian Ross and Dan Moore. This year, another notable Board member has called it a day, with Rick Morris indicating he will not be seeking re-election at the AGM. Rick's association with the Union stretches back to 1993 with Canterbury

RFC's inclusion in Suburban Rugby. During his time on the Suburban Board, Rick has been a member of the Union's busy Clubs, Competition and Rules Sub-Committee and was also Deputy Chairman of the Union's Judiciary for three years. Rick won this year's Service to Rugby Award and was also awarded the 2010 Blacktown Sports Administrator of the Year. Whilst Rick has resigned as a Board member, he has already declared his interest in remaining involved through the Judiciary and CCR sub-committee. The Union thanks you, Rick.

Sadly, the Union lost one of its stalwarts in January with the sudden passing of Peter Kelly. Peter was a life member of the Matraville-Chevalier Rugby Club and more recently was involved in the Beecroft Rugby Club, where his son, Tom, played. Peter was a long serving member of the Suburban Board where he served two terms. He was awarded the Australian Sports Medal in 2000 for his service to the game. In honour of Peter, the Union has named its Service to Rugby award after him. We were honoured to have Peter's widow, Kerry, and his family, attend our Presentation Night to present the inaugural Peter Kelly Medal for Service to Rugby. Fittingly, it went to Peter's friend and great rugby colleague, Rick Morris. Another highlight of the night was the Coach of the Year Award going to John Daniels and David Twomey, who both coached - and played in - the Blue Mountains Clark Cup premiership team. This was the club's first 1st grade premiership since 1976. Congratulations also to Leo Afeaki (Drummoyne) for winning the Kentwell Medal, and Petersham RFC for taking out the prestigious Suburban Rugby Club of the Year Award.

Petersham had some stiff competition in the Club of the Year race. On the field, Woollahra Colleagues were the stand-out club this year, winning the five senior Division One trophies on offer - the Kentwell, Burke, Whiddon, Judd and Sutherland Cups. This is a triumph unprecedented in Suburban Rugby's long history. The famous club also won the Bruce Graham Shield for Division One Club Champions and won the Division One Club of the Year Award. A truly remarkable achievement and the Union heartily congratulates Club President, Richard McGrath, and all of Colleagues' members and supporters on their amazing year. Hunters Hill dominated Division Two and won the Barraclough Cup for first grade premiers and the Cowboy Cup for the inter-divisional club championship competition. (Their U85kg team proved the difference in a tight race with Petersham, who did not enter an U85kg team.) Hunters Hill have earned promotion to Division One, where they have not been since 2002. Petersham dominated Division Three and won three of the five grand finals they contested, including the Radford Cup Colts competition. Petersham also won the Doc Harris Shield for Club Champions and will now compete in Division Two. Congratulations to Brothers and Sydney Harlequins for their Fourth and Fifth Division Club Championships and their respective first grade premierships.

The Union forged ahead in its social media presence, with a spike in Facebook followers and the introduction of Twitter - which allows real time dissemination of results across the divisions. This technology is cost effective and an important avenue for communication with, and between, our Clubs. The Union launched a new website this year and we look forward to further improvements to it throughout the off-season. One improvement already warmly received, through the outstanding efforts of Warren Hodge, is the weekly rugby wrap, "Hodgie's Bits", which helped to showcase the Union across all its divisions.

Colts team numbers fell slightly, to 25 teams, following last year's record of 29 teams. In an effort to ensure the Union's divisional structure remained vibrant, Division Four was reintroduced after a two year absence. However, a couple of Division Four clubs were caught short of players from the outset and this led to a less than ideal competition. The Union is currently reviewing competition options for 2012, but a six division structure is looking unlikely.

In a first for rugby, the Union this year introduced team penalties for referee abuse. Now, not only are individuals penalised, but entire teams get hit through the loss of competition points. Most pleasingly, the Union's Judiciary had a much quieter year in 2012 with a 20% reduction in cases before them.

Unfortunately, our state's peak rugby body, the NSW Rugby Union, continues to find itself in a less than satisfactory financial position. This has led to severe funding cuts across community rugby. Suburban Rugby is not immune from this - indeed, our annual grant from NSW Rugby has been cut to zero. This situation is not likely to change in the near future. The Union is still fortunate to be supplying services for fees to NSW Rugby in the areas of Youth, Premiership and Women. These fees generate an important revenue stream for Subbies. Furthermore, we have built up sufficient reserves that, up to now, have allowed us to weather the storm with no financial impact on clubs. However, this cannot continue and the Union is currently reviewing its revenue streams and expenditure items so as to ensure our ongoing sustainability. The Union has reported an operating deficit of $50K compared to last year's operating surplus of $50K. The $100K turnaround can be largely attributed to the grant cut (approximately $65K) and the representative team tour to Queensland (approximately $8K). Unfortunately, the Union's investment also depreciated over the course of the season, resulting in an additional paper loss. As I have noted in previous annual reports, this is a long term investment strategy, and whilst the Union has benefited from previous share-market highs, this year a $40K loss has been reported.

Mick Kennedy was elected President following the retirement last year of long serving President, Dan Moore. The Union welcomed new Board members, Geoff Granger and John Morrison, and welcomed back onto the Board Chris Moloney. Danny Hinton moved into the Treasurer's role after an election was required in March. Chairman Paul Timmins continues to represent the Union's interests on the NSW Rugby Board. I thank the Board for their ongoing efforts and dedication to the Union. In many instances, the time they spend on their Union responsibilities is in addition to the time they spend volunteering with their own clubs. The Board and staff recently attended a weekend conference to formulate longer term plans in relation to Union finances, marketing and promotion, referees, competitions, volunteers, recruitment and retention, and IT.

The representative team performed admirably this year, wresting the Maher-Ross Cup from NSW Country at the Sydney Football Stadium and retaining the Barraclough Shield after beating QLD Suburban at Ballymore. This was the first time since 2003 that the Union has won both of those matches in the same year. The Union thanks outgoing representative coach, Michael Magriplis, and his team for their efforts.

The Union welcomed the Harlequin Inn as a sponsor this year and we thank them and our loyal band of sponsors, all of whom continued their support this year: Hartley Anderson at Coke (17 years), Chris Clark at Interfuse (15 years), John Blondin and Australian Rugby Review (15 years), Jon Clark at Gilbert (15 years), Rob Baumann at Leuko (13 years), Michael Zann at Icons of Sport (7 years), Fiona Regan at IST (6 years) and Scott Philipson at ISC/ Beyond Sport (6 years).

The Union is fortunate to have some long standing professional and dedicated staff members. Tim Richards, Lisa Kinny (Premiership) and Taleah Neowhouse (Juniors) do a wonderful job. This year they were capably assisted by Harry Morton and our intern, Matt Holding. Thank you to our terrific volunteers, particularly Peter Butchard who attends and assists the office staff on a weekly basis. Thanks to NSW Rugby and the NRMA Unsung Heroes Program, Peter, ground marshal extraordinaire, Mick Clay, and Hills RFC President, Craig Brinnand, were rewarded for their long service to the game with a trip to the Rugby World Cup Semi Finals. Congratulations to those gentlemen.

Finally, thank you to all the volunteers for your tremendous efforts throughout the year. I look forward to your continued support in 2012 and beyond.

Judiciary Report

2011 saw a welcome decrease in the number of established offences - down to 84, from last year's unacceptable total of 107.

That is cause for commendation, particularly the marked reduction in striking offences. However, referee abuse remains an issue for the Union. As foreshadowed in last year's annual report, tougher sanctions that impact on the abuser's team were introduced during the season. Expect those sanctions to continue.

The Judiciary recognises the importance of coach, captain and referee cooperation - and acknowledges this requires changes from ALL parties, referees included. The Judiciary will be taking note of those clubs that do not participate in the pre-season game management meetings between coaches and referees as this is a proven, effective way to promote cooperation.

The Judiciary also noted the rise in the incidence of dangerous tackling offences. Extra emphasis from referees on the lifting tackle is responsible for some of this increase, but there is also evidence to suggest that players who compete in both rugby league and union have trouble adjusting their tackling style between the two codes. This is something coaches must address.

We thank our judiciary members for their time and expertise – Mark Groom (Chairman), Tony Beger (Deputy), Geoff Cramp, Jim Melrose and Pat Barrett and their 'reserves' - Joanne Harrison and Matt Payne. And our Appeals Tribunal members - Richard Harvey (Chairman), Paul Angus, Phil Brown, Dan Moore and Jim Smith.

The following clubs had no established offences recorded against them in 2011, and the Union applauds them and their players:

Representative Team Report

The NSW Suburban Representative Team faced two tough matches in 2011 – against NSW Country and Queensland Suburban. Coached again by Michael Magriplis, the team was determined to grab this double victory, which had eluded our team since 2003.

The annual grassroots city-country match, with the newly minted Maher-Ross Cup now up for grabs, was this year played as a curtain raiser at the Sydney Football Stadium on 21 May. Always a spirited encounter, the game roared to light just four minutes in when Subbies five-eighth, Dan Kelly (Colleagues), crossed for a try which he then duly converted for a quick 7-0 lead.

The well-drilled and well-travelled Country team then set to work, scoring two penalties and an unconverted try to overtake Subbies, 11-7. With the game starting to open up, and Country dominating long passages of play, the Suburban team was happy to still be within striking distance on the scoreboard. A penalty to Kelly right on half time saw the city team go to the break only one point behind and well poised for the second forty.

Subbies then dominated, with ample possession and territorial advantage for much of the next 20 minutes. That great effort was finally rewarded when Adam Choice found himself on the wing on the end of a blindside move, allowing the big #8 from Campbelltown to dive over in the corner and put Subbies back in front.

The Cockatoos were quickly back on the attack and a great try from winger, Chris Jack, saw them snatch back the advantage.

As the clock drew to full time, Kelly was able to coolly slot a penalty, changing the lead for the fifth (and final) time. Country poured on the pressure in the final five minutes, and despite a number of coach-killing penalties against Subbies, the defence held firm for us to win 18-16.

Victorious captain, Vinny Byrne (Brothers), was presented with the Maher-Ross Cup, the magnificent new trophy named in honour of Country's Laurie Maher and Suburban's Ian Ross.

Three weeks later, the Rep Team travelled to Brisbane to meet Queensland Suburban at Ballymore.

In a first half dominated by Queensland, the NSW boys could never seem to find their rhythm. Kept on the back foot by ill-discipline, the visitors watched as Queensland had four shots at penalty in the first 15 minutes. Luckily, only one was successful. It is an understatement to say NSW was thankful to be only down 3-0 at half time.

The second half began much as the first had finished – with Queensland in control. They picked up two quick penalty goals to push the score out to 9-0. However, a crucial decision left the door ajar for our boys – the Queensland #8, their captain and best player, was sin-binned for repeated infringements at the breakdown. The visitors, led by the unflappable Vinny Byrne (Brothers), set about capitalising on the error.

Craig Thomas (Brothers) put us on the scoreboard with a neat try, and as play started to open up things started to finally go right for NSW. Whilst the pendulum was starting to swing in our favour, the countdown to fulltime was not - we remained behind. Finally, with one minute to go, Dan Nieass (Hawkesbury Valley) was in under the posts to put us in the lead for the first time all match.

The conversion from Adam Choice (Campbelltown) finished the scoring, and NSW had posted an improbable and unbelievably nail-biting win to retain the Barraclough Shield and to remain undefeated – something not achieved by a NSW representative team for five seasons.

Thank you to all those players who nominated, trialed and trained with the rep squad. Thank you to coaches Michael Magriplis, Alan Astley and Andrew Hill for giving their time and expertise. Our gratitude goes to Damian Raper and Luke Heath, our physios. Thanks also to managers Lauren Spence and Frank 'JJ' Tait for their hard work. Job well done to all of you.

Finally, congratulations to all the undefeated rep players, and the clubs they represented so well.
